TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

Deuteronomy 26:4-10 The children of Israel were delivered from Egyptian bondage and wilderness wanderings by the terrifying power of God. But they had their role to play in this drama. Their sufferings were real, their struggles were heavy, and their achievements were earned through faithfulness to their Lord.

Romans 10:8-13 According to the apostle Paul, those who call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. This "calling on the name of the Lord" is not word magic. It is not achieving desired ends by casting some secret spell.

"Calling on the name of the Lord" is a matter of surrendering the heart, conforming the mind and dedicating the body to Christ.

Luke 4:1-13 The temptations of Jesus in the wilderness were a life and death struggle over the means for establishing the Kingdom of God. He could have used his divine powers to bribe people with material benefits, to conquer people by military power, or to dazzle people with miraculous surprises. Instead, He chose the means of sacrificial love.

SPECIAL NOTE: If any of our three school districts (Nassau, New Lebanon, or East Greenbush) are delayed or closed for bad weather, Daily Mass in the rectory is cancelled.

PARISH HAPPENINGS THIS WEEK

Friday—Stations of the Cross followed by Vinny Flynn "7 Secrets of Confession." Sacrifice teaches us the joy of putting other first while it strengthens us to respond decisively to the influence of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Yielding to God takes guts like leaping off a high precipice into pitch darkness. It feels risky, but when we can't clearly see what's ahead and we choose to entrust ourselves to God's love, the rewards are fantastic. It's as if we ventured out into the wilderness with no provisions to discover mysterious treasures that speak to our hearts like nothing we have ever experienced before. From the book, "True Radiance: Finding Grace in the Second Half of Life"

PRAYER FOR OUR TROOPS

Father, hold our troops in your loving hands and protect them as they protect us. Be with them and comfort them with your loving presence while they are away from their homes. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need, and grant us all peace, both as individuals and a world Community. We ask this in the name of Jesus, your Son, with faith that you can hear and answer all our prayers according to your will. AMEN.
